Lined up and ready to go at the Suffolk Show!

Nooze News!

Well here we are half way through the year, with lots going that you can read about and more to come

In this months edition we have the usual chat from the chair, with details of upcoming training and another plea for help from Marshals.

We have a write up from Graham White, on his experience from this years incredibly successful Suffolk Show and lots of photos throughout of some of the members and their landy's.

There is also a letter from Tim Alden, our PR and show co-ordinator, which went out to our chosen charities regarding the show, with replies from Make a wish and Marie Curie.

Angela Bussey, who is Marie Curie's fundraiser for Suffolk, has been kind enough to send us an article on their experience of working alongside SLROC at the show and details of what and where the money goes when we donate to this charity.

You will also see that Bearmach have reviewed the progress of their club campaign and have listened to feedback from various clubs, based on this, they have decided to increase the discount percentage for members from 5% to 10%.

We had a very successful quiz night in May and we have a write up on how the evening went from one of the winning team, Not sure if its me, but there appears to be some sour grapes (Kumquats) regarding a couple of the answers!

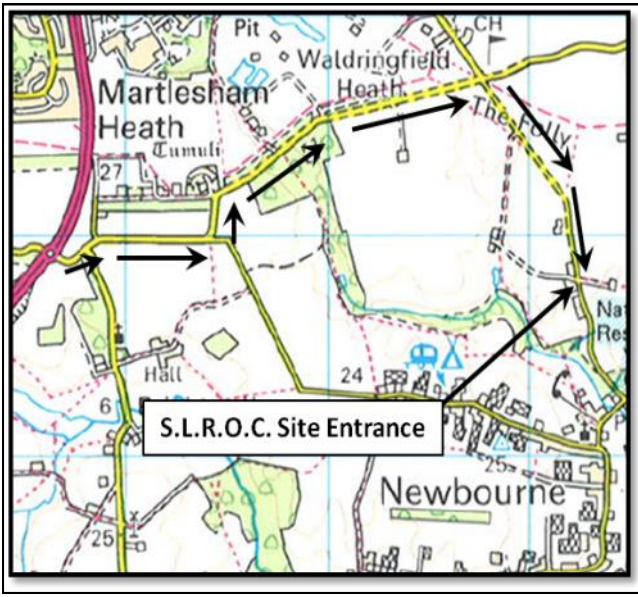

The open day is going ahead on the 13th August and there are details of this and help needed to make this day a success.

Finally look out for this months editors picture of the month, sorry Andy, couldn't resist!

Happy reading

Jane

Directions to the Newbourne club site

The club has it's very own off-road driving site which we use monthly for weekend events, and competitions. The site is situated to the east of Ipswich, near to the village of Newbourne. Strict rules must be adhered to when using the site, to protect the safety of all users. Please keep your speed down around the village, and especially on the access track which has a 5mph limit. See you there!

Chat From the Chair

I was wondering how to start this month's Chat From The Chair when I looked down and spotted the remnants of two days of fantastic sun flaking off my right arm. Three or four applications of factor 30 per day were no match for the 'Defender right arm' that had been somewhat 'caught' by the end of Thursday. And that really sums up the whole event. Great weather led to great crowds that meant a great show and a record breaking great total raised for this years nominated charities! Chris and his team have been perfecting the 'art' of the Suffolk Show for enough years to be able to manage it to perfection and whilst we've been knocking on the door of a five figure sum for the past couple of years, this year we've broken the barrier and the grand total raised was £10,479! This is truly remarkable and a testament to all involved. The only question coming out of this is how are we ever going to top that?

Of course there's a lot of effort goes into the planning and organization of the Suffolk Show for SLROC and indeed into all of our events whether it's a show, a competition or a driving day. One thing they all have in common is the need for safety, and the guys on the ground implementing that are our marshals. This year is a marshal catch up year and the concentration is on ensuring skills are kept up to date. Our in house trainers went for an update earlier in the year and we're just about to have a marshal retraining weekend for those regular marshals that are due for a refresher this year - Pat will have already been in contact if that includes you! Whilst there are a number of trained marshals 'on the books' we are always happy to welcome more and training weekends are managed by Pat and his safety team. The training is quite comprehensive and the only charge is for the admin of the process, the real 'payment' for the training marshals receive is in the time they give back to the club by turning up to events to help with the safety on the day. Marshal training is not just 'another string to your bow' or 'another feather in your cap' it's skills that are handed down on the assumption the club will benefit in return by the time marshals give at events whatever they are. If you're a trained marshal please help the club with a little repayment of your own from time to time!

And so on to up coming events. By the time you read this, we'll have already had a new event at he Suffolk Food Hall – Suffolk Day, but of course there's the June driving day and the Wings and Wheels festival at Heveningham Hall on the 8th and 9th of July – a week later than was originally published! This is another cracking event for us and includes lots of other attractions to be seen, especially the array of expensive and exotic cars on display at the main hall, certainly one I always look forward to.

Whatever event's your attending this month, have a great time and if you have a tale to tell, write it down and send it in with a few photo's, the Nooze team are always grateful for extra content!

All the best…

Andy.

A quick email from Tim to our nominated charities reference the Suffolk show

Well, the Suffolk Show exceeded all expectations and we managed to break last years record in fund raising for that event. By now I'm sure you will have reported back or received reports from team members about how SLROC operate at these shows. As you will appreciate its all very well planned and extremely busy. In fact we took over 3,750 people around the course during the two days of the show.

We had good feedback from the public and were well supported by BBC Radio Suffolk with a number of interviews.

So, on to the next event…

Whilst we have a small event to support at the Suffolk Food Hall on the 21st of June it is only for 4 hours in the afternoon so I think we can handle that one on our own. The next big event will be Heveningham Hall Country Fair Wings and Wheels on July 8th and 9th.

Pretty much like the Suffolk Show, we will be limited to one pass per charity unless others become available at the very last minute. So I would ask that you plan just for one person. This show attracts about a third of the people the Suffolk Show does so its not quite so manic. However, space is tight. We will have our marquee set up as per the Suffolk show and there will be a space by the side of it approx 3m x 3m where you can set up a Gazebo / shelter. As you are all great friends now can I ask that you liaise with each other as to how / what you bring? I would highly recommend a shelter of some description if not for the rain, then for the sun.

If you can get attendee names confirmed to me in the next 10 days it would be appreciated.

Kind regards

Graham White talks about his experience at this years Suffolk Show

On behalf of myself, Annette and Kai

Thanks very much for a thoroughly well organised and enjoyable (albeit tiring) two days.

There is a massive amount of work to run such a successful event for the club and I give massive thanks to all who were involved over many months putting it all together.

From my perspective it ran as smoothly as ever. The loaders, unloaders, money takers, marshals, seesaw operators etc did a brilliant job as always.

All the passengers commented on how professional it all was and how much they enjoyed their time. Many commented what good value it was. Many said it was the best thing there. Quite a few had several rides on the day and lots said, "I have come specially again this year because it was so good last year, I was told to go on the ride because my friend said it was brilliant".

Kai really enjoys all the shows and really looks forward to them. His day was made even better by Rob Last on Wednesday with a blast round and by Chris and Dave on Thursday in Bumble and Tom Cat. THANKS!

Kai being Kai has made me promise the Land Rover to him when I die (I'm planning on being alive for many more years) and would anticipate him driving in about 4-5 years when he can reach the pedals.

Kai draws land rovers, buggies, ultra 4's on a daily basis and has now made up a Land Rover board game. He plays Land Rover games, makes lego and Kinex models of Land Rover, buggy, ultra 4 and collects Land Rover models. He reads LRO before me. He is obsessed with tyres, his favourite is currently Maxxis Trepador (yes Brian!) yes he is a Land Rover fanatic. Don't start a conversation with him about the merits of Defenders and Discoveries if you have a Disco and want to avoid an argument!

Looking forward to Heveningham, Suffolk food hall and Henham
See you all soon

Thanks again for all that everyone does to make SLROC such a friendly and successful club, well done

Club Open Day Sunday 13th August 10am-4pm

This year's SLROC Open Day is only a couple of months away and as always we need your help!

Helpers: As ever we will be looking for helpers with the off-road rides just like normal shows, so drivers, loaders, unloaders and sign on are all needed, as well as a few marshals including for the see saw. We will also need car park marshals but everyone could be on a rota. The other side of the day will also need helpers to look after the barbeque, refreshments and raffle so any donations for these would be gratefully received, you can bring any donations you have to a Driving Day or to the Open Day. We will also be having a static display as we did last year so if you would like your vehicle to be included please let us know what you will be bringing.

Camping: is available for this weekend but due to limited amounts of space the parking of caravans is going to have to be very neat so we can fit as many in as possible, and just for this weekend we would like to ask for no awnings please! This is just to be fair so that everyone who wants to camp can. Tents are welcome and may be asked to squish up a bit depending on how much space there is already taken when you arrive. If you would like to camp can you please let us know ahead of time and what you are bringing (eg. caravan/tent).

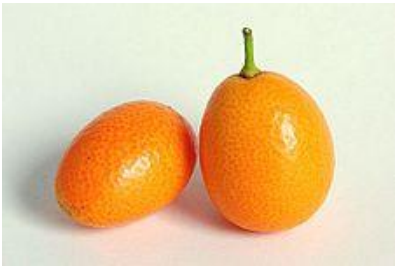

Vehicle movements: as the event runs from 10am—4pm all vehicles should be on site before 9:30am for scrutineering and getting into the relevant position before the site is opened to the public. Vehicles involved in a static display should also be on site by 9:30am. After this there will be no further vehicle movements apart from the off-road rides until the end of the day and no late entries or early leavers will be permitted. If you wish to leave half way through the day for any reason, or arrive late you will be asked to park in the public car parking area.

If you can help with this event please add your name on the forum or send an email to nooze@slroc.uk.com.

Thanks, Jane & Richard

When Is a Kumquat Not a Fruit?

Of course the answer is when it's a small orange – isn't that obvious! OK, I've used artistic license and slightly re-arranged the question, but that's just one of the odd but hilarious and indeed hotly contested moments that went to make up a great quiz night at Newbourne Village hall.

It's been a good while (years even) since the last club quiz night and when Si stepped up to the plate and said he'd like to organize a 'social evening' his hand was duly 'snapped off'. Si and Jane were in charge of all of the arrangements. The village hall was booked, food arranged and questions drawn up and set into sections.

When the evening was announced, our team was pulled together more from a couple of "Does anyone need anyone on their team?" announcements rather than "We must get these guys together." thoughts, after all we were in it for the fun (well we were when we started out) and there were no thoughts of how well we'd do by the end of the night, we just wanted a good group of friends on a team. That all went well until Ralph said "You do realize we've won the last two club quizzes we've entered don't you!" which was instantly a big concern. The last two quizzes we've been to in the village were a little less successful. In fact a lot less successful as we came last in both of them ironically winning a 'Question of Sport' quiz book for our troubles. I assume it was given in the hope that we'd get better by reading through it and remembering the answers – no hope of that then! So the pressure was on from the start and combining these previous results hopefully meant at least we wouldn't be last! So the team members were myself and Cathy, Ralph and Anne and to bring down the average team age considerably and hopefully get a few questions intended for the 'younger generation', Michael and Hannah joined us too.

The sections of questions were well varied and covered everything from the regular geography type questions to the more intricate Land Rover specific questions. We were always going to be covered for the Land Rover questions after all, Ralph is a walking encyclopedia and Michael was there to back him up, but our cross section of knowledge from the team meant that the first few rounds went exceptionally well and maybe (just maybe) we were doing pretty well if not just as good as any of the other teams. This is the point where you start to wonder about doing well overall and competitiveness begins to creep in, but on the flip side, we were keeping 'well oiled' and that managed to keep us on an even keel. Thankfully, Cathy still wasn't allowed to drink so at least one of us stayed alert and able to write answers down.

After an hour or so and with a few rounds under our belts, there was break for supper. Cathy and I (Cathy driving of course) whizzed off to Admirals Fish and Chips and picked up the order for all 40 plus of us there. There were four huge polystyrene keep warm boxes; good job we've got a Land Rover to put them all into! Back at the village hall, the chips went down a treat and it wasn't long before we were away again with the rounds of questions coming thick and fast.

Si and Jane had done a great job sorting the questions out and they seemed to come in at the right level and were neither impossible nor easy. Of course 'interpretation' should be kept to a minimum and the steely quiz master insisted that when asked "What is a Kumquat?", the answer was clearly "A small orange." And not "A fruit." And the only 'void' question was "What is the only number below 60 you can't score with a single dart on a standard dart board?" – think about it! The addition of a 'pictures' round completed during the break was also a great idea and by the end of the night we'd completed ten rounds of quizzical questions.

For our team, as the evening progressed the score per round started to drop off and by the end it felt like we'd done at least well enough to definitely not come last and probably well enough to be more 'middle of the pack'. And so came the results read out in reverse order. We weren't last and we weren't in the middle of the pack. The top three were read out in 3…2…1 order, it was like one of those T.V. shows with the extended pregnant pause just to raise the anticipation…and we were…first - just! Amazing! Well at least that breaks the duck of always coming last and doesn't disappoint Ralph but keeps his record and makes it a three time winning streak.

I think it's fair to say that everyone had a fantastic evening and it's a credit to Si and Jane for firstly offering to put the evening together and secondly and importantly making it such fun for everyone. If you weren't there you certainly missed out! Lets hope there are plenty more social events organised that we can enjoy away from the mud!

Suffolk day (June 21)
- Approached by Suffolk Food Hall to participate in this mid-week event. It only runs from 15:00 to 19:00. Few interested parties on the Forum. Suggest we need a minimum of 4 vehicles plus a couple of bodies to help organise. We have 6 people interested; only 2 are reasonably certain. Charliecamel will attend and I've suggested they man the table if possible.

Heveningham (July 8)
- Paperwork submitted by Robert Heather and I have been in touch with the organisers and the head of the trustees.
- One family pass has been donated by Heveningham to the Make a Wish people.
- Health and Safety has tightened up so important that drivers be briefed about speed limits – will speak to Robert.

Open day (Aug 13)
- Still on our list but unsure if it is going ahead? (June Committee meeting it was decided to go ahead with the open day)

Tractor Fair @ Suffolk Food Hall (Aug 26)
- Confirmed our attendance, SFH staff will trim grass extra and we are welcome to add to the course.

Henham Steam Rally (Sept 16)
- Paperwork submitted – document pack expected back in first week of July
- I will contact Graham after receipt of document pack and then plan a course visit shortly before the event.

Chernobyl kids

- We have been contacted by Matt Hurst to potentially help out with an experience for some children form Chernobyl. If we want to go ahead, we can organise it over the summer when their next visit is planned and I will get EADT and BBC Radio Suffolk on board if I can.

SeeSaw

- Terry is able to provide for all the events (we won't bother on Suffolk day). We just need willing drivers to move it and the trailer back and forth.
- I am assuming it's sorted for the Suffolk Show already.
